Who are RIASS? – Emma Bell

Redbridge Information, Advice and Support Service (RIASS) is an impartial information, advice and support service to children and young people with SEN and/or disabilities 0-25 yrs old (SEND) and their parents/carers who live in Redbridge. We provide information, advice and support around Education, Health and Social Care

As an impartial service we provide information, advice and support firmly based in the law and the SEND Code of Practice, and provide unbiased information and advice about the local authority's policies and procedures and about the policy and practice in local schools and other settings

We do not give priority to any impairment, disability or special educational need, nor do we campaign for any approach to education and it does not matter if the child or young person has a SEN or disability or an EHC Plan.

www.redbridgeiass.org.uk

We do not provide information, advice or support around housing, benefits or immigration nor do we do referrals to other services such and social care or health.

Why has this group been set up?

- To improve parents/carers and young people's experience of transition
- This is the first session of 7 which are planned for 2022/23. We will use feedback from today to guide future sessions
- Parents and young people encouraged to engage in discussion and put forward their views – Share with care
